CONDITIONS OF OFFER

Your offer is conditional, which means that we will reserve a place on the course for you, but you need to meet the requirements below before your offer is made unconditional. To meet the conditions of this offer, we require the following:

Remaining Conditions

- Degree Completion letter mentioning the convocation ceremony date or month when the student will receive Original Certificate.
- Copy of university grading scale with percentage
- Personal statement including the reason why the student would like to join this program without plagiarism used
- Credibility Interview
- Please pay a 60% deposit (minus any scholarships or discounts you may be awarded) directly to the University upon successful completion of pre-CAS interview on the below link
<https://rave.paytostudy.com/>

WHATS NEXT

1. You will need to meet all the conditions above before we will be able to update your offer to unconditional. Please send evidence that you have met the conditions to Ravensbourne@OxfordInternational.com
2. Once you have received your Unconditional Offer, you will need to make your deposit payment. Details on how to make payment are below.
3. After making payment, you will then be sent a link to CAS Shield and should upload the relevant documents allowing us to screen your eligibility.
4. We will then issue you with a CAS, if applicable, and you will make your visa application keeping us informed of the status.

YOUR FEE STATUS AND VISA INFORMATION

Based on the information you have provided, we have determined that you will be liable to pay fees at the overseas rate. Up to date information on tuition fees for international students is available at <https://www.ravensbourne.ac.uk/international-students/how-apply/international-tuition-fees>.

We have also determined that you will require a Student Route Visa to study in the United Kingdom. In order for Ravensbourne to be able to issue you with a Confirmation of Acceptance of Studies (CAS) you are required to meet all university student visa requirements. This will include financial evidence of your ability to fund your studies and expenditure in the UK, copies of academic qualifications, immigration declaration, deposit and more. You will be contacted with more information regarding your visa application closer to the time.

SUPPORT SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

Information on accommodation, including how to apply, is available via our accommodation pages. Please be aware that there may be early deadlines for accommodation applications.

If you have a disability or long-term physical or mental health condition that may require additional arrangements to be made for you while you are studying at Ravensbourne, you should contact Ravensbourne's Student Services team: call +44(0) 203 040 3501

DECLARATION OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

As a responsible organisation, Ravensbourne has a duty of care towards you as an individual as well as to our students, staff and members of the public who co-operate with them in their work. We would be grateful if you could declare any unspent criminal conviction(s) (subject to the 1974 Rehabilitation of Offenders Act).

Any information you provide will be treated with the utmost confidence and you will not be automatically excluded from the application process. Please note that, for the purpose of this exercise, a criminal conviction excludes motoring offences for which a fine and/or up to three penalty points on a driving licence were imposed.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

The University requires all prospective students to be able to demonstrate the required level of English language needed to succeed on the course and satisfy the UKVI requirements for a student visa. A full list of accepted English language qualifications are available on the English language section of the university website.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

The University's decision on an application is in good faith on the basis that the information provided is complete and accurate. If there is any change in circumstances after submitting an application (for example, a change in subjects studied), the applicant must inform the University as soon as possible. The University reserves the right to terminate any student's enrolment should it be discovered that a false statement has been made or significant information omitted during the application process.

Minor changes to courses are a routine part of ensuring that courses remain up to date and offer students the best educational experience and employment prospects upon graduation. Minor changes may include changes to optional modules, minor changes to the overall balance of assessment types, updating of course content, minor changes to the learning and teaching strategy (including learning hours and how some material will be delivered). Such changes would not normally invalidate an offer or acceptance.
